

History of Art and Archaeology

We challenge convention – and amplify alternative voices to a Eurocentric take on art, archaeology, and architecture.

From ancient times to the present day, you'll enjoy delving into the creative cultures of China, Japan, South Asia, the Middle East and more. Whether performance masquerade in West Africa, the temples of South East Asia, the archaeology of Morocco and Ethiopia, or contemporary art exhibitions and questions of identity in museums, teaching here is broad, bold and bespoke. Offering the choice of more than 40 modules on one course alone, as well as modules from the School of Arts across music, media and the history of art, the variety here is unrivalled. In fact, we're the only university in the world to offer such a range of teaching and concentration of research specialists in these fascinating areas.

Courses:

- BA History of Art
- BA History of Art (Asia, Africa and Europe)
- BA History of Art and Archaeology
- BA History of Art and Archaeology and... (see pages 88-89)

Duration:

- 3 years (OR)
- 4 years with a language

You'll need:

- AAB-ABB (excluding General Studies)
- IB:35 points (6/6/5 in Higher Level subjects)

You'll gain:

- A specialist background in Asian and African art.
- The ability to tailor the way you communicate information, arguments and ideas to suit your audience.
- Visual and critical awareness, and strong research skills.

Potential careers:

- Auctioneer
- Editor
- Fashion designer
- Non-profit executive director
- PR
- Project manager

More information:

► soas.ac.uk/art

*QS 2020 World University Rankings

Global Top 200

For History of Art*

